Board of Directors Nomination Petition

Election Policy: Anyone can be nominated, as long as they reside in Silverton or have a child in Bethany Charter School. Each nominee must have a petition presented on their behalf to the current BCS Board with the signatures of support of 10 community members who are not currently BCS Board Members. Five of those community members must have children in Bethany Charter School. They must represent five different families. The person being nominated must have approved the petition.

The nominations must be turned in by the December BCS Board meeting to the BCS Board Secretary. The list of nominees needs to be posted in at least two public places in our community at least two weeks ahead of the election.
